

Changes To Recycling Programs At the Drummond Line Transfer Station

Televisions

Effective April 1, 2009 free disposal of televisions and monitors at the Household Hazardous Depot. Under 52 inches in size will be accepted.

Computer Monitors

Effective April 1, 2009 free disposal of televisions and monitors at the Household Hazardous Depot.

Car Tires

Effective September 1, 2009 free disposal of residential tires. On road and off road tires, with the rims removed will be accepted at the landfill. Bicycle tires will not be accepted.

Household Hazardous Waste Program

Accepted

- Paints, stains
- Oils, gasoline
- All battery types
- Cleaners, chemicals
- Propane tanks
- Needles, syringes, lancets
- Medicines, pharmaceuticals
- Pesticides, insecticides, herbicides
- Thermometers, thermostats
- Computers, monitors, printers, fax machines and ink-jet cartridges
- Televisions, DVD players and VCRs
- Personal electronic devices and cell phones

Unacceptable

- Pathological waste
- Ammunitions
- Smoke detectors
- PCBs
- Radioactive waste
- Explosives

TIP

Never mix substances. If possible keep materials in their original containers and securely pack them in your vehicle to prevent spills.